* IMPORTANT ****

All exhibits must be in place, clean and complete, not later than 4 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, 2023.
Use of mannequins as a minor part of the exhibit will be accepted at exhibitor's risk.

Articles in each of the divisions are limited to new domestic work completed since NOVEMBER 2022
—NO EXCEPTIONS.

No entry will be accepted from any individual. All entries must be entered or sponsored by a regularly organized women's club, community club, group, society, association, etc.

Exhibitors will be required to prepare, construct and decorate their own exhibit. Colored paper may be used at the exhibitor's risk.

The fair will provide an enclosure (8-foot front, 4-foot back height, 4-foot side height). Fair booths are 8-ft. front, back and sides are 5-ft. and 4 in. from floor to top. Booths should not be painted. Use paper or cloth & staples to cover booths. Staple cover on with 1/4" staples. Remove paper or cloth & staples on Sunday, Oct. 29, 2023, between 10 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

NO PAINTING IN BUILDING 3

When putting in your booth, do not put anything in other booths at any time or allow anyone to play in someone else's booth. Each booth must have a front "gate." When you have finished your booth, contact Jeremy Johnson.

SIGN

Each exhibitor must furnish a sign identifying the exhibit, which shall tell its story. The name of the club must be covered for judging. After judging is completed. The club's name may be uncovered.

RESPONSIBILITY OF EXHIBITOR

See General Rules & Regulations

CLEANLINESS OF EXHIBIT

Each exhibitor will always be held responsible for the cleanliness and attractiveness of the exhibit. The exhibit must present a clean and neat appearance before judging begins. Failure to comply with either of these provisions will cause the exhibitor to be disqualified for competitive awards, in which case the lowest amount of premiums will be paid.
